Weekly Stewardship Reflection and PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL:

"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." (Luke 14:33)

When we first hear this statement. It seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything. It is much easier to share many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

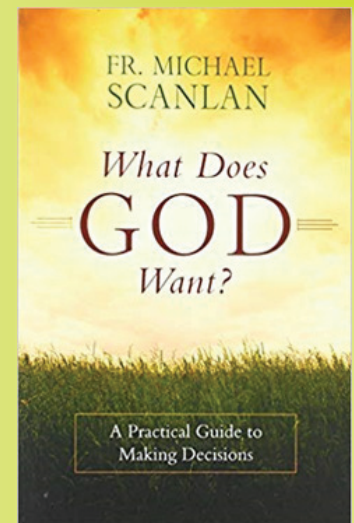

"Cualquiera de uds que no renuncie a todas sus posesiones no puede ser mi discípulo" (Lucas 14:33)

Cuando escuchamos esta declaración por primera vez, parece que Jesús está haciendo una demanda poco realista sobre nosotros. Cómo podemos renunciar a todas nuestras posesiones? Las necesitamos para vivir. Sin embargo, debemos renunciar a la creencia de que nos pertenecen. Todo lo que tenemos pertenece solo a Dios. Todos nuestros recursos nos son confiados no solo para nuestro propio uso, sino también para que podamos ayudar a otros. Una vez que renunciamos a la idea de que poseemos o tenemos derecho a algo, es mucho más fácil compartir los muchos regalos que Dios nos ha dado. Entonces verdaderamente somos sus discípulos.

WHAT DOES GOD WANT?

We make about two hundred conscious decisions a day. Most are small. Some are huge:

- ◀ Should I Marry the woman or man I've been dating?
- ◀ Should I go to graduate school?
- ◀ Should I leave the job I've been doing for fifteen years?
- ◀ Do I need to fire someone who is working for me?
- ◀ Should we adopt a child?

What Does God Want? is designed to help you make these decisions. It offers a five-part process for decision-making that can help you choose the right course of action in matters large and small. Developed by Fr. Michael Scanlan during more than thirty years of spiritual direction, counseling, and teaching, this approach to decision-making is grounded in Christian tradition and tested by thousands in real-life challenges of life direction, love, work, study, service, and relationships.
