3 Marks of an Authentic Disciple

By Fr. Ian Van Heusen | Jan 17, 2018 via Catholic-link.org
<https://catholic-link.org/3-marks-authentic-disciple-gospel-reflection/>

1. Repent

Every day, you must practice ongoing conversion, recognizing that you need the Lord. The Desert Fathers would do this through short little prayers like the Jesus Prayer: “Lord Jesus Christ, son of God, have mercy on me a sinner,” or the shorter “Jesus, have mercy!” Cultivate those continual habits of repentance in the heart. Ask for His mercy for every time you fall.

2. Respond

The first disciples are fishermen. They're called to drop everything and follow Him in the Gospel (Mark 1:14-20). But this response will probably look very different for you and me today. We aren't expected to mimic the Apostles or the great mendicant (begging) saints... we are called to respond in a specific way in our own lives to His call to greatness.

3. Surrender

Surrendering doesn't mean simply giving up material possessions... but to discover and surrender to the particular demands of our unique vocation. Follow His call with complete abandonment, letting go of the little (and big) ways that we hold back from holiness in our lives, letting go of the compartmentalization of our faith.

Weekly Stewardship Reflection and PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL:

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" (LUKE 17:18)

Most of us live “easy” lives. We have food, shelter and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day to thank God for all He has given you.

“¿Nadie más que este extranjero ha regresado para dar gracias a Dios?” (LUCAS 17:18)

La mayoría de nosotros vivimos vidas “fáciles”. Tenemos comida, refugio y ropa. Nos vamos de vacaciones todos los años y somos dueños de uno o dos autos. La mayoría de nosotros damos todo esto por sentado. ¿Alguna vez notó que las personas con la menor cantidad de posesiones suelen ser las más agradecidas? ¿No debería ser esto al revés? Tómese el tiempo todos los días para agradecer a Dios por todo lo que Él le ha dado.
